GOOD TASTES

THESE ARE REALLY GOOD

Touted as the world's first microwaveable, ultra-lowfat gourmet doughnut, Holey Donuts ($23.95/dozen) are a dieter's dream.

It's no wonder these doughnuts, with their light, fluffy texture and sinfully sweet fillings and glazes, are endorsed by the diet-delivery program ZoneChefs.

Holey Donuts are free of fat substitutes, artificial sweeteners and other evildoers. Only pure ingredients go into these heavenly creations available in a variety of styles, from classic vanilla and Boston cream to raspberry crumb.

Cinnamon buns are also sold via the Chefs Shoppe section at www.zonechefs.com, or at www.holeydonuts.net and shipped frozen to be thawed and enjoyed.
